

Carrie Regnier, BSN, MPH, RN

Director, Quality and Clinical Effectiveness | Norton Healthcare

Carrie Regnier is the Director of Quality and Clinical Effectiveness with Norton Medical Group and Norton Children's Medical Group. Carrie has over 20 years of healthcare experience which includes direct patient care, public health, payer population health, and integrated delivery system care delivery. In her current role, Carrie focuses on improving outcomes related to preventative and chronic care while collaborating with provider partners.

Carrie is a registered nurse and has a Masters in Public Health.