

Greg Potts, MD

Senior Medical Director | Papa John's International

Greg Potts, MD is a board-certified Family Practitioner who joined Papa John's in December 2014 as the Senior Medical Director of the newly formed "in-house" clinic (Papa Cares). Prior to joining Papa John's, Dr. Potts was in private practice for 20 years in Louisville, Kentucky. During these years he served 5 years as the medical director for Kentucky Derby Festival mini-marathon and marathon, 10 years as team physician for University of Louisville basketball and football teams as well as 16 years as team physician for Male High School.