

Executive Profile

Aaron J. Youngblood

Regional Vice President,
Included Health Communities

Aaron Youngblood, an employee benefits professional of nearly 20 years, joined Included Health in 2022 dedicated to the mission of raising the standard of healthcare for everyone.

As a growth leader within Included Health's Communities organization, Aaron consultatively partners with intermediaries and key decision makers to build a more inclusive healthcare experience. One that provides guidance and advocacy to deliver better care experiences for every individual, in every community. Deeply rooted in "Growth through Partnership", Aaron succeeds at collaboratively solutioning to drive health equity and inclusion practices for underserved and vulnerable populations.

The breadth and depth of Aaron's skills and experiences bring a unique perspective to the clients and partners in which he is fortunate to serve. Prior to joining the organization, his professional experience has included senior roles in Strategic Marketing, Business Development and Client Management.

As a perpetual optimist, Aaron resides in the State of Connecticut with partner Nick and their 110-pound Rhodesian Ridgeback, Winston. As an avid traveler, Aaron has visited over 22 countries and is "just getting started". When not working, you'll likely find Aaron enjoying a delicious glass of "bubbly" with friends and family.

"Travel changes you. As you move through this life and this world, you change things slightly, you leave marks behind, however small. And in return, life—and travel—leaves marks on you."

-Anthony Bourdain

