

Tyndal Jones, MD

OB/GYN | Elevance Health

Tyndal Jones, MD, is a board certified OB/GYN (Fellow of the American College of OB/GYN). She graduated from Morehouse School of Medicine in 1996, where she was in the top 1% of her graduating class. She completed her residency in OB/GYN at Emory University School of Medicine in 2000, and then entered private practice, where she provided comprehensive health care for females, beginning at adolescence, through the post-menopausal years. She provided obstetrical care to a diverse population with special focus on high risk pregnancies and teen pregnancy. Additionally, she enjoyed providing preventive and wellness care, and had a thriving GYN practice. Her special interests also included gyn surgery, hormone therapy, contraceptive management, management of abnormal pap smears, and a variety of disorders including uterine fibroids and menstrual disorders. After working in private practice for 21 years, Dr. Jones joined Elevance Health in September of 2021, and enjoys working with an incredible team committed to ensuring our members have access to the highest quality and affordable healthcare. When away from Elevance Health, Dr. Jones spends time with her husband and two beautiful daughters, and enjoys traveling, bowling, fine-dining, and going to the theater.
